FROM THE DEANS

I have experienced camp now from four different views, as a camper, camp staff, a counselor, and now a dean. Joey and I have spent a lot of time planning and praying over this week and to say that everything went exactly planned would be a lie. Joey and I had a small but very effective and loving staff that adapted to all the twist and turns of the week. Our theme was based on the television show "Survivor" and at times it definitely felt like we were in the real game. Our verse was Psalm 29:11, "The Lord gives strength to his people; the Lord blesses his people with peace." Everyone involved in the week truly experienced the strength and peace from our Loving Father gives us. Thank you for trusting us with your students. It is our hope that they will leave this week closer to Christ and changed.

-Brian Warren, Dean

If you had asked me this time last year after working 1st Junior and 1st Intermediate back to back, if I would be the Dean for 1st Intermediate, I would've called you crazy. I truly believe middle school campers are the best! This week has been challenging - Brian and I are both rookies when it comes to being a Dean. We have prayed, we have celebrated, and we have been frustrated in the weeks leading up to now. This week has been all that we could have hoped for and then some. Our theme was Survivor and our goal was to prepare these students, to the best of our abilities, to survive anything that comes their way. Our lessons, team time, worship, and session time have all exceeded our expectations. We love each and every one of these campers and we hope and pray that what we have done this week has planted some seeds. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for allowing us to pour into them and love them as Jesus loves us.
